

DON'T HALLOWEEN YOUR CHILDREN!

What if the Halloween's a mandatory task
For me to wear a sad and bloody mask?
I'll not agree this kind of awful joy -
I want a normal, beautiful, nice toy!

I want a party celebrating life,
Not horror, murder, walking with a knife,
Not darkness which pretends that cares for me,
I want to be, I don't want not to be!

No death, or sorrow, sadness or vampires,
No devil's deep and terrible empires!
I want to put my childhood in God's hands,
I want to live the Life that never ends!

'Cause Jesus Christ makes promisses come true,
He never lies, He's talking to you too!
Just let the bloody Halloween away
And put yourself right now on the right way!
