

The Guantamera dream

Felix Rian Constantinescu

I believe in God but I believe not in God
But in the Dignity of Man - in man and God together
I believe in Money but I believe not in Money
But in Bread & Wine

I believe in Love but I believe not in Love
But in Woman
I believe in Children and my Brain
But I believe in Heart

I believe in Faith but I believe not in Faith
But I believe in what comes After
I believe in Work but I believe not in Work
But I believe in Effort

I believe in You but I believe not in You
As I believe in the One You Could Be
And finally I believe in Death but I believe not in Death
I believe in Life.
